

Novice Competitions.

Definitions

1. Existing members may opt to participate in the Novice section.
 1. This may be because of general inexperience in photography.
 2. Inexperience in post camera image processing.
 3. Inexperience in image printing.
 - i. Existing members who opt to join the Novice section may only re-join the Advanced section on winning the Novice section.
2. New members would automatically be placed in the Novice section, with the exception of:
 1. New members transferring from another club, providing they are at the advanced standard in their current club.
 2. New members with work of a standard to place them in the Advanced section; or if they hold a photographic distinction.
3. Those members entering, or gaining promotion to the Advanced section may not then revert at a later date back to the Novice section.
4. The winner of the Novice section each year in either Projected images or Prints will automatically be promoted to the advanced section.
5. The Novice Print section will comprise of a maximum of three prints per member and may be Colour, Mono or a combination of both.
6. The existing competition definitions will apply to the Novice section.
7. The existing rules will apply to the Novice section.